OVERVIEW

An exceptional two-bedroom, two-bathroom penthouse apartment situated on the sixth floor of the sought-after Gooch House development in the heart of Hammersmith. Boasting an extensive private outdoor terrace, generous internal accommodation and an enviable West London location, this outstanding property offers a rare opportunity to enjoy penthouse living with an impressive amount of outdoor space.

The standout feature of this remarkable apartment is its exceptionally large private terrace, providing a substantial extension to the internal living accommodation. Offering ample space for outdoor dining, entertaining guests, sun loungers and outdoor furniture, the terrace creates a wonderful private retreat above the surrounding neighbourhood. Outdoor space of this scale is rarely available in such a central London location.
