OVERVIEW

Set within the modern Babbage Point development, this spacious two-bedroom, two-bathroom apartment on Norman Road, Greenwich, SE10, offers contemporary living in one of South East London's most well-connected and rapidly evolving neighbourhoods. Positioned on the third floor and extending to approximately 995 sq ft, the property benefits from a private south-facing balcony, generous proportions, and an excellent location close to Greenwich Peninsula.

The apartment is centred around a bright and expansive open-plan living and dining area, thoughtfully designed to maximise natural light and provide a superb space for both everyday living and entertaining. Large windows and direct access to the private south-facing balcony create a seamless indoor-outdoor living experience, with the balcony enjoying sunshine throughout much of the day.
