OVERVIEW

Situated within the prestigious Wardian development in Canary Wharf, this beautifully presented unfurnished two-bedroom apartment offers refined contemporary living in one of East London's most iconic residential addresses. Renowned for its striking architecture, landscaped sky gardens and world-class amenities, The Wardian delivers a unique blend of luxury, wellness and modern city living.

The apartment features a well-proportioned open-plan layout, designed to maximise natural light through floor-to-ceiling glazing and create a bright, airy living environment. The expansive reception and dining area offers a versatile space for both relaxing and entertaining, finished with elegant contemporary detailing and a neutral palette that allows for full personalisation.
