

Bogart House, Filmworks, W5 5AH

Asking Price £1,885,000

Full Description

Stunning penthouse apartment set in the newly developed Bogart House, an iconic building at the heart of Filmworks. Spanning over an impressive 1622sqft, this apartment epitomises luxury living with three double bedrooms, spacious open plan lounge & kitchen area, one family bathroom and two en suites. The private terrace is generously sized at 765sqft and offers stunning city views. Resident parking is also included with this unit. Providing over 200 contemporary homes, Filmworks will also include an eight screen cinema and central piazza surrounded by a high-quality mix of shops, restaurants and bars, including Planet Organic. Filmworks infuses a new dimension to Ealing's enticing personality. Retaining the old cinema's historic façade it will welcome a high quality mix of new homes, alongside a leisure district that showcases an exciting new destination for the capital. Filmworks' public and private spaces will create an authentic sense of place that is sensitive to Ealing's blend of historic and modern architecture, steeped in history and culture, interesting and hugely multicultural. Further local attractions include Ealing Studios (the world's oldest film studio), the Questors Theatre and Ealing Jazz Club, now The Red Room, where The Rolling Stones first met in 1962. The V&A Museum, British Museum, the West End, Theatreland and the South Bank are all also within easy reach from Ealing Broadway. Ealing's sense of place is about to change, at speed. The arrival of the Elizabeth Line will significantly reduce journey times: trips to Bond Street will take 11 minutes, Heathrow Airport 14 minutes and Canary Wharf in 25 mins.
