OVERVIEW

A beautifully refurbished three double-bedroom, split-level apartment occupying the upper two floors of an attractive Victorian house, offering generous living accommodation, a large private rear garden and excellent access to the Elizabeth Line at Maryland.

The property has recently undergone a comprehensive refurbishment and is presented in excellent condition throughout. Improvements include a brand-new fitted kitchen with new hob and contemporary backsplash, new flooring and carpets throughout, and complete redecoration. The bathroom and en-suite have also been remodelled, while a gas fireplace provides an attractive focal point within the living space.
