

Dayton Grove, London, SE15 2NX

Guide Price £775,000

Full Description

A beautifully presented period mid-terrace home, nestled on the sought-after, tree-lined Dayton Grove in Peckham. Brought to market for the first time in 37 years, this elegant residence combines generous proportions, timeless character, and exciting scope for personalisation. Stepping inside, the welcoming hallway leads to a stylishly arranged double reception room, complete with bay windows and original detailing. To the rear, a well-designed kitchen and modern bathroom open directly onto a private garden - perfect for entertaining or family life. Upstairs, the first floor hosts three bright and spacious double bedrooms, each thoughtfully presented. The property also boasts a substantial 19'9 cellar, offering superb storage and excellent potential for future development (subject to the usual consents). Rarely available, this is a unique chance to secure a charming home on one of Peckham's most desirable streets. Dayton Grove enjoys a peaceful, leafy setting, just moments from the vibrant shops, cafés, and restaurants of Queens Road, with outstanding transport connections. Queens Road Peckham station (Overground and mainline) is just 200m away, providing fast links to London Bridge, Canada Water, Canary Wharf, and the West End. The neighbourhood is thriving with independent eateries and cultural venues, with the much-anticipated Peckham Coal Line set to enrich the area even further.
