OVERVIEW

An exceptional two-bedroom, two-bathroom apartment in the sought-after Gooch House development, located in the heart of Hammersmith. Boasting a spacious private outdoor terrace, generous internal living space, and an enviable West London location, this impressive property offers a rare opportunity to enjoy both comfort and outdoor living in a central London setting.

The standout feature of this remarkable apartment is its exceptionally large private terrace, providing a substantial extension to the internal accommodation. The terrace offers ample space for outdoor dining, entertaining guests, sun loungers, and garden furniture, creating a wonderful private retreat above the surrounding neighbourhood. Outdoor space of this size is rarely found in such a central location.
