OVERVIEW

Positioned on the 13th floor of the sought-after Kent Building, this impressive two-bedroom, two-bathroom apartment combines contemporary interiors, excellent natural light and a private balcony within a well-connected Docklands development.

The heart of the apartment is the spacious open-plan kitchen and living area, designed to provide an excellent setting for both everyday living and entertaining. Floor-to-ceiling glazing draws in an abundance of natural light, while direct access to the private balcony extends the living space outdoors and provides an elevated outlook across the surrounding London skyline.
