

Luma Building, 6 Lewis Cubitt Walk, N1C 4UZ

Asking Price £1,200,000

Full Description

Well positioned, 5th floor apartment (887 Sq. Ft) offering lovely city views! Located in the eagerly anticipated Luma, Kings Cross. Brand new premier development of luxury apartments, ideally located in the heart of Kings Cross. King's Cross is one of London's most established and well-connected creative hubs. Its transformation is set to continue as the area attracts those inspired by its modern and forward-thinking spirit. Luma is a sophisticated residential address that takes full advantage of its tranquil setting. Elegantly faceted balconies open out to Jellicoe Gardens and Lewis Cubitt Park, connecting the beautiful outdoors with the inner sanctuary of home. Luma sits proudly in front of Lewis Cubitt Park, the largest expanse of green space at King's Cross. To the rear you will find Jellicoe Gardens, an exotic Persian-inspired hideaway created by Tom Stuart-Smith, an eight times gold award winner at the Chelsea Flower Show. It is home to an expanding collection of specialist retailers and entertainment venues including fashion brands, chic boutiques and independent market stalls, creating a lively atmosphere with lifestyle and experience at its core. Not to mention an Everyman Cinema which is next door to Luma. It's all brought together at Coal Drops Yard, one of London's newest shopping districts, re-imagined by architect Thomas Heatherwick.
