

Maple Court, Alvey Street, SE17 2LN

Asking Price £540,000

Full Description

Situated on the third floor of Maple Court, is the beautifully appointed two bedroom flat. The apartment itself is comprised at over 790 Sq.Ft and further benefits from lift access and a communal garden space. There is a very generously sized open plan kitchen and living space with a south east facing balcony offering an abundance of natural light to the space. Both of the sleeping suites are excellently sized and each have floor to ceiling windows which make for lovely bright spaces along with the high ceilings. The family bathroom is very sleek, with the additional benefit of a bath and shower unit. There is plenty of internal storage space, double glazed windows throughout and gas central heating. Alvey Street is just 0.4 miles from Burgess Park which had a superb regeneration programme with a family park central to the local community. Offering a great space for a variety of events and sports. Location wise you are within walking distance of a plethora of stations. London Bridge is 20 minutes away by foot and under a mile away is Elephant and Castle Station, where access to the Northern Line can be found.
