

Midhurst House, Salmon Lane, E14 7PH

Asking Price £275,000

Full Description

Set on the ground floor of Midhurst House is this beautifully presented one bedroom apartment with small rear garden & communal gardens. As you enter, you are greeted with a warm hallway that leads into the exquisite open plan lounge and kitchen area. The finish in the lounge boasts stylish cream walls, wooden flooring and is illuminated through the floor to ceiling windows and patio door that leads to the private patio area. The kitchen has a modern design and fully integrated and offers space for a dining table as well. The stunning presentation is carried into the well sized double bedroom with great built in storage options. The family bathroom has a sleek design with modern fittings and shower unit. The property offers permit street parking and has a lovely communal garden area at the rear. Based just a short walk from Limehouse train station which offers both DLR and Overground transport links throughout London making this apartment the perfect option for working professionals. With Queen Mary University of London in the area, this property is also a great rental investment as it's an attractive area for East London. There is a great array of local amenities with famous restaurants such as Gordon Ramsey's The Narrow and an eclectic selection of bars and shops as well.
