OVERVIEW

Access to this peaceful two double bedroom apartment is via a staircase located at the rear of this charming period building. Set within the "Chapel," the flat enjoys a bright and spacious atmosphere thanks to its double-height reception area. Spanning the first and second floors, the property features a generous mezzanine bedroom and study, an open-plan fitted kitchen, a second bedroom with built-in storage, and a contemporary fitted bathroom.

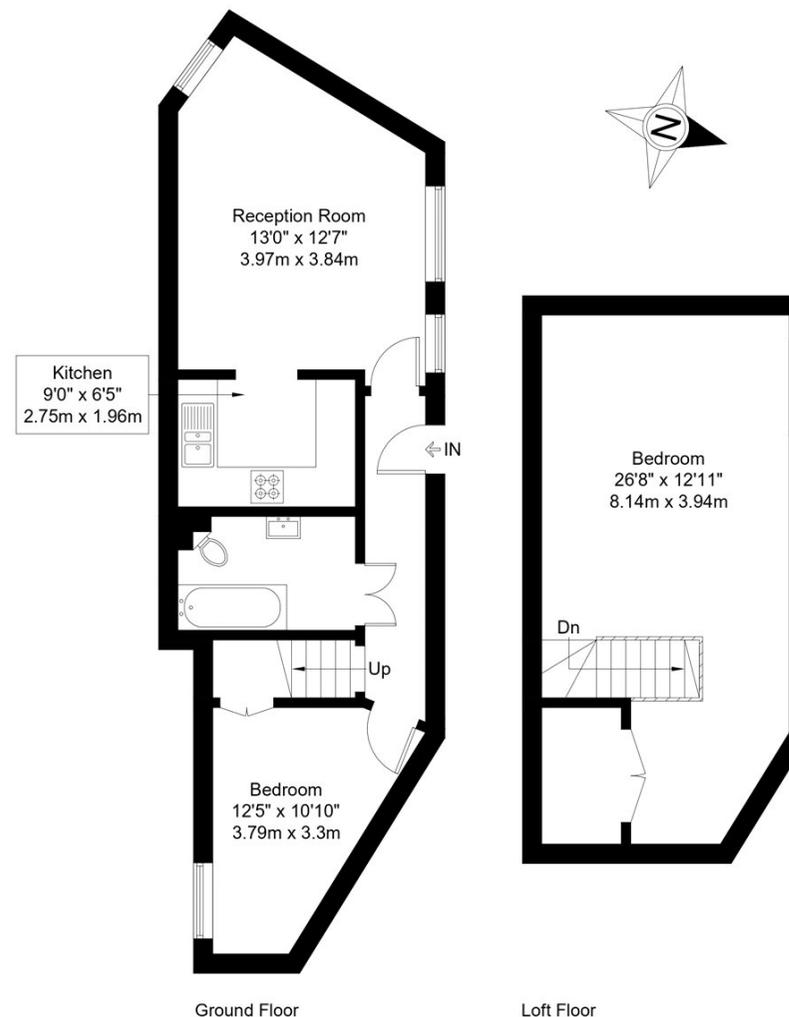

Originally converted from a 1930s Seaman's Mission and centered around an attractive courtyard garden, the development also benefits from a large communal roof terrace offering sweeping panoramic views across the City, East London, and Canary Wharf, as well as an on-site porter and residents' gym. Ideally positioned near the scenic Limehouse Basin and Thames Path for riverside walks, the Mission Building provides convenient access to both Canary Wharf and the City.
