

Neckinger Estate, Bermondsey, SE16 3QE

Asking Price £330,000

Full Description

Located just a short five minute walk from Bermondsey Station, is this well presented, one bedroom apartment in the quiet residential Neckinger Estate. The property has a large open plan kitchen and living space, with fully integrated, modern appliances with soft close drawers. The space has an abundance of light and through onto the refurbished balcony which benefits from an abundance of afternoon and evening light from the southwest facing aspect. The main sleeping suite has been renovated with an additional storage spot which is a great use of internal space. With the east facing windows the room encompasses a plethora of early morning light. The main family bathroom has a stunning shower unit, with designer radiators. The property has had a recent refurbishment of the carpets and flooring. In addition to this there is free parking on site, with a spot for a guest as well. Located centrally just off Spa Road, the Neckinger Estate provides the perfect location for those looking to enjoy a unique village lifestyle within Central London. The Bermondsey street food market, with local brewies on site is moments away. Canary Wharf is just a 20 minute door to door journey away and only a 15 minute walk is London Bridge Station.
