OVERVIEW

Occupying an exceptional position in the heart of South Kensington, this impressive five-bedroom house offers substantial and versatile accommodation in one of London’s most prestigious residential neighbourhoods. With five bedrooms, three bathrooms and generous living space, the property is offered unfurnished and presents an outstanding opportunity for those seeking a substantial home in prime SW7.

The house provides an excellent balance of entertaining and private accommodation, with generous reception space creating an inviting setting for everyday living and entertaining. Attractive proportions and excellent natural light enhance the sense of space throughout, while the unfurnished arrangement allows incoming residents to create a home entirely tailored to their own style.
