OVERVIEW

Situated within Ringwood Gardens, this well-proportioned one-bedroom apartment occupies the top-floor position and offers approximately 425 sq ft of comfortable living accommodation. The property presents an excellent opportunity for first-time buyers seeking their first home, as well as investors looking for a conveniently located property in East London.

The apartment benefits from a practical layout, with well-proportioned accommodation designed to make good use of the available space. An additional advantage is the access to a loft space, which is partially boarded and offers useful additional storage potential, making it particularly practical for everyday living.
