

Silwood Road, Sunningdale Park, SL5 0FY

£4,100 pcm

Full Description

An immaculate brand new, four bedroom detached house in Sunningdale Park. Boasting an impressive floorplan, panoramic green views and 3 parking spaces. With an impressive south-facing garden. It features a welcoming entrance hall, which leads to the spacious kitchen / dining / family room with French doors opening out to the garden. The ground floor also accommodates a separate living room, a generous study and cloakroom which opens off the wide hallway. Up the feature staircase, both bedrooms 1 and 2 benefit from bespoke fitted wardrobes and luxurious ensembles. The first floor is completed by the family bathroom providing facilities for bedrooms 3 and 4. The Estate Collection gives a glimpse into the golden age of country house living. The Dairy, The Gamekeeper's Lodge and the Gardeners' Cottages serviced Sunningdale Park's mansion house in the 19th century, providing lavish food and meticulously tended grounds for its leisured residents and guests to enjoy. Sunningdale Park is set in an idyllic corner of the Royal County of Berkshire. Located 10 miles west of Heathrow and in between the sought-after areas of Ascot, Virginia Water and Windsor, this 79 acres of undulating parkland and woods is one of the most desirable places to live in the country, a spectacular landscape and the captivating history of a country estate will serve as the backdrop for a new community featuring a diverse range of homes in new and refurbished historic buildings.
