Full Description

This elegant top-floor apartment is bathed in natural light, situated within a stunning Grade II Listed building. Perfectly positioned adjacent to St Paul's Cathedral, within the highly sought-after St Paul's Cathedral Conservation Area, this home provides an exceptional central location - ideal for walking to work or enjoying the vibrant cultural and nightlife scene. The building features an impressive communal hallway with lift access to all floors. Inside, the generous living area creates an immediate sense of space and flexibility, ideal for relaxing or working from home. A large storage room adds valuable practicality, while the fitted kitchen sits conveniently adjacent to the main living space. The location offers effortless access to London's financial and legal districts, with One New Change shopping centre just moments away. A wealth of restaurants, cafés, and bars are within a short stroll, and the nearby West End theatres provide further entertainment options. The Millennium Bridge connects you to the South Bank, home to the Tate Modern and Shakespeare's Globe Theatre - making this historic area a true hub of culture, art, and lifestyle. Transport connections are excellent, with nearby stations including Blackfriars (District & Circle lines), St Paul's (Central line), and Mansion House (District & Circle lines). The Elizabeth Line at Liverpool Street and Farringdon also provides rapid connections to Heathrow Airport and Canary Wharf.
