

Wilmot Street, Bethnal Green, E2 0BU

Offers In Excess £300,000

Full Description

This chain free terraced conversion comprises a spacious multi-purpose reception to the rear of the building. Large traditional sash windows allowing for an abundance of natural light and calming views of the picturesque Weavers Fields Park behind the property. The room benefits from original hard wood flooring, exposed brickwork, and space efficient contemporary shelving. Adjacent, a three-piece bathroom with bathtub benefits from additional storage and serves as the perfect divider between the living and dining quarters. A bespoke eat-in kitchen is found to the front of the apartment, which look out over the beautifully tree-lined street itself. Wilmot Street is walking distance from Shoreditch and The City whilst also being surrounded by an array of transport links, such as Bethnal Green Overground (1 min walk), Shoreditch High Street (10-12 mins walk) and Liverpool Street station (25 mins walk). The green spaces of Victoria Park and London Fields are just moments away, as are the amenities of the renowned Broadway Market and popular Columbia Road.
